Hearing scheduled on city hunting ban

By HENRY CANTIN
The Michigan Department of Natural Resources has scheduled a public hearing on a proposal to prohibit hunting within the corporate limits of the City of Romulus.

The public hearing will be held at 7 p.m. Jan. 11 at the Romulus Senior High School, located at 9650 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus.

A formal resolution adopted by the Romulus City Council on Nov. 11, requested the DNR to consider a no hunting ban for the city and to schedule a public hearing.

For the purpose of conducting this hearing and preparing a recommendation, a committee has been formed which will preside at the hearing.

Committee members will consist of Wayne County Sheriff William Lucas, Major Forrest Jacobs of the Michigan State Police; Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael of Romulus and L.A. Gray, chairman of the Hunting Area Control Committee, Law Enforcement Division of the DNR, who will serve as chairman.

State Sen. William Faust and State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak, as well as other area officials, have been notified of the public hearing.

The DNR urges all interested parties to attend and present their views or objections to the proposed no hunting ban for Romulus.

The city's resolution requesting the public hearing stated "the Romulus City Council finds that a situation of imminent danger and hazard to the citizens of the City of Romulus exists in that uncontrolled hunting and discharging of firearms within the corporate limits has endangered the life and safety of the citizens."

The council stated that "it deems it in the best interest of the health and welfare of the citizens to control or prohibit hunting and the discharge of firearms in the city."

The committee named to conduct the hearing will make a study and recommendation to the state and Romulus City Council for the control or prohibition of hunting in the city.

The roll called voters of the city.

Council orders mayor to concur with decision

A council order the purchase of two from Ray Whitfield, Inc. of Taylor has been denied by Romulus City Council. Whitfield was awarded the contract on Nov. 11 on a bid of $5,099. It was the lowest of three bids received by the city.

Some members of the council were irked by the car dealer's alleged failure to deliver the cars on the specified delivery date (30-days after council's approval). The cars were to be used as city cars.

The roll call vote to cancel the car contract was 4-1. Councilman Edmund W. Bizek voted against the motion to cancel the contract. Councilman William M. Oakley and Fred Junior Block were absent at the special council meeting held on Dec. 16 when the council cancelled the contract.

City Clerk Leonard Folmar reported that he had contacted the car dealer and received an explanation for the delay, which he reported to council.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, somewhat disturbed, stated after the council session:

"Originally our feeling was that we didn't need the new cars at this time. The city council mandated the clerk to advertise for the cars and now the council has reversed its position. It is much better to accept the cars than at a later date when the cars will cost more."

"There is a need currently for one car. We have renovated three old police cars for other city use," he added.

Community rallies to help burned out Romulus family

Life is steadily improving for the Morrill family of Romulus, thanks to the generosity of neighbors and others in nearby communities.

On Dec. 3 a fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the one-story frame residence and the entire personal belongings of Mrs. Lorraine Morrill, a widow and mother of five children.

The fire broke out in the utility room of the home, located at 7330 Hollywood St., Romulus.

When word of the homeless family's dire need for every essential item for living became known throughout the Romulus community, neighbors and others, under the leadership of Mrs. Nancy Cripps and Mrs. Margaret Thacker, began an assistance program.

Mrs. Morrill has since found lodging in the Niagara Motel, located on Merriman Road in Romulus. Her children are spending part of their time with relatives and part with their mother.

Gifts of clothing, food, money and toys have been donated to the family.

A list of the donors and their donations are as follows:

Clothes from the Junior Girl Scouts at the Hayti Elementary School, Romulus; an electric stove from Don Mitchell, Romulus; living room furniture including chairs, rocker and a refrigerator from Norman Briggs of Ann Arbor, who personally delivered the items to the family; clothes from Mrs. Dave Mann and Mrs. Donald Thacker, both of Romulus; clothes from Mrs. Nancy Cripps, along with $20 collected by her children; clothes and money from the Gordonier Elementary School, Romulus; Mrs. Natch and her daughter, Mrs. Greer, donated food.

Other donations included clothes from Junior Girl Scout Troop 372, along with a replacement for a Girl Scout uniform for one of Mrs. Morrill's daughters which was lost in the fire.

Also given were $50 from the First Baptist Church of Romulus; toys and a portable television set from Dick Kincer of the Burger King, 33540 Michigan Ave., Wayne; a refrigerator and mattress from Mrs. Felix Jezuit of 28712 North Line Rd., Romulus; a couch and table with four chairs from Mrs. Cathy Cheffes of 8640 Dodge St., Romulus; a stove from Mrs. Worden, clothes from Minis Newton of 7285 Burton, Romulus; clothes and a bedspread from Mrs. Banks of Romulus; clothes from the Helping Hand Thrift Shop in Romulus and furniture from Mrs. Reis of Romulus.

The Romulus Goodfellows presented toys and food to the family.

The present pound master is George Hartgrove of 37783 Wabash St., Romulus.

Building permit issued

A building permit for the construction of an addition to the Romulus plant of the Difco Laboratories, 29245 Wick Rd., has been issued by the Romulus Building Department.

The building plans, approved by the department a few weeks ago, called for the construction of a one-story addition having an estimated construction cost of $65,000. Difco Laboratories' Detroit facilities are located at 920 Henry St. Barton-Malow Co. of Oak Park, was issued the building permit.

Youths caught with car

Two Detroit youths were caught red-handed by Wayne County Sheriff's deputies last Wednesday, after they allegedly stole a car from the parking lot of the Hilton Inn at 31500 Wick Rd.

Detective Alex "Scotty" Robertson said the juveniles, both 16, were apprehended at Merriman and Wickham roads by officers patrolling the area in unmarked cars. Robertson said the officers had observed the youths in the parking lot, first tampering with the car and then driving it away.

The youths told police they were driven to Metro Airport by an older man who had promised to drive them home but left them stranded instead.

Police confiscated a screw driver and what they called a "hot wiring kit commonly used in auto thefts," from the boys. They were released to their parents.

The council is paying for mileage use of personal cars with the official cars are not available. He added that "it would be cheaper, occasionally, to pay mileage in the use of personal cars when city cars are tied up."

In other action, the council ordered that a communication be sent to the corporation counsel directing that copies of legal opinions rendered to any administration official, legislative official or department head be forwarded to all councilmen.

It also instructed the mayor, clerk and treasurer to submit a report on the following expenditures at the Dec. 28 council meeting: mayor's conference (Industrial and Commercial Development Conference) held at Ramada Inn in December and the $6,500 expenditures for a chloride tank truck.

Help Center start delayed

Plumbing problems have caused a delay in the opening of the new Romulus Help Center.

Located in the heart of the city's civic center complex on Goddard Road, the center has been the scene of a great amount of activity recently as volunteers worked to complete cleaning and painting for a community open house and grand opening before Christmas.

Staff volunteers, in addition to the cleaning and painting, took part in an intensive, two-day "empathy" training session to meet the deadline.

"We also have no furniture for the center," said Earl Lamb, assistant principal at the high school and chairman for the project. "We need chairs, couches, tables and recreational equipment. It doesn't have to be new. We would welcome any kind of household goods that are still usable," he added.

"The Romulus United Methodist Church Women's Society has given us a real Christmas surprise," Lamb said. "They have donated $100 to the project and we are thrilled about that." But so far other donations have been slow in coming.

"We've had one used chair, a gallon of paint and the Jaycee's gave us a Christmas tree from their lot at Five Points," said Lamb. "Everything else has been paid for by the 30 or 40 volunteers who are also giving a lot of their time at a busy season of the year."

At the last meeting of the Help Center volunteers, committees were formed. Mrs. Pat Lucke will head a finance committee that will work to compose a letter describing the center's services. They are also planning a supporting membership drive that will offer a quarterly newsletter to keep the membership informed of the group's progress.

Mrs. Nan Kidder and Mrs. Linda Merriman are gathering referral information and pledges of cooperation from various agencies and institutions.

Erv Vickstrom, Mrs. Violet Martin, Al Chrisman and Mrs. Merriman are working on the "Hire A Kid" work project. Peter Kertesz heads a rules committee.

Al Chrisman and Wes Brooks are making designs for letterheads and membership cards.

Others who will assist are Joyce Kerr, Ron Makino, Mrs. Mary Smiegl, Pat McAnally, Tom Woodside, Robert Parr, Chuck Claxton, Jim Trailer, Rob Good, Dan McAnally, Dave Martin, Leslie Reinka, Horace Stevens and Tim Sapula Carol Woodside.

Anyone interested in contributing furnishings to the center may contact Sandra Block at 941-0666.

Mobile home industry will aid consumers

At the beginning of the new year, the mobile home and recreational vehicle industry in Michigan will become the first in the country to implement a Consumer Relations Council in a self-regulatory and cooperative move to help with consumer problems.

Arnold Kuthy, president of Chateau Enterprises, is chairman of the council, established by the 700 dealers, manufacturers, suppliers, and park and campground operators who are members of the Michigan Mobile Home and Recreational Vehicle Institute (MMHRVI), one of 40 similar state associations.

"Our study leads to the conclusion that prompt acknowledgment of consumer complaints and prompt communication with our members can be a vital and effective procedure," Kuthy said.

"This is precisely what we will be beginning Jan. 4, 1972. Our MMHRVI office will be ready to act as a clearing house. By and large, our members here in Michigan are responsible businessmen, eager to serve their customers and the community properly as evidenced by their recent adoption of a strong business-consumer relations code."

The MMHRVI council and board of directors consulted with various consumer groups and experts before setting up the clearing house procedure. These included representatives of the Michigan Consumers Council, the Detroit and Grand Rapids Better Business Bureaus, the Michigan Mobile Home Owners Association, and the Mobile Homes Manufacturing Association.

Here is how the new system will work:

1. Consumers are asked to write—not telephone—to Mrs. Alice White, director of the Consumer Relations Council, Recreational Vehicle Institute, 19045 Farmington Rd., Livonia. She will promptly reply to the consumer and enclose a form to be filled out and a return envelope.

2. Upon return of the completed and signed form, the consumer will receive a second letter acknowledging the receipt of the form and will be told his or her complaint has been forwarded to the business involved. The consumer also is advised to write to Mrs. White again, if no action has been taken within a reasonable time.

3. Simultaneously, a copy of the consumer's complaint will be sent to the appropriate business with a request from the chairman of the consumer relations council that the customer be contacted immediately and everything possible be done to resolve the matter. The business is then asked to report back to the council in an envelope provided for that purpose.

Bruce McDonald, of McDonald Mobilehomes Inc., who is MMHRVI president, said that the Consumers Relations Council will make quarterly analyses of the case files to determine the patterns of the problems and to discover if any member or non-member business has an unusual number of unresolved complaints.

The board of directors then will consider remedial action and any additions or corrections to the system, he said.

The formation of a consumer relations council has been enthusiastically received by the MMHRVI members, according to McDonald.

McDonald added that in the mobile home and recreational vehicle industry, there are no more numerous than any other comparable industry, particularly in fields which have tremendous growth acceptance in the last decade.

Suspicious fire ruins church's goodwill box

A fire that destroyed the St. Vincent DePaul's Goodwill box, located in the basement of St. Aloysius Catholic Church of Romulus, is under investigation by the road patrol division of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

The goodwill box was filled to its brim when the fire broke out around 11:30 a.m. Sunday, Rev. Joseph Kernosek, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, reported.

It was the fourth time that fire has destroyed the goodwill box since last Easter, Rev. Kernosek said.

When the first fire occurred, outside lights were installed near the box as a preventive measure. In Sunday night's fire, the lights, as in previous fires, were smashed before the fire started.

Rev. Kernosek reported that he had seen some youngsters near the box shortly before the fire broke out.

The rectory is located at 11280 Ozga Rd., Romulus.

Two boys break into junior high

Wayne County Sheriff's deputies arrested two 15-year-old boys last Wednesday, after they allegedly broke into Romulus Junior High School.

Police said they were called to the school at 11401 Olive at 3:25 a.m. on a report of a burglary in progress. On arrival, deputies found the two juveniles roaming one of the school's hallways.

The youths, who were released to their parents, had apparently gained entry by breaking out a classroom window.

Ann Arbor resident dies in Romulus two-car crash

One man was killed and two others were injured in a two-car accident in Romulus Saturday morning.

Wayne County Sheriff's deputies said Billy James Robinson, 47, of 1243 Kensington Drive, Ann Arbor, was killed when the car in which he was a passenger was struck broadside by another vehicle that allegedly had gone through a red light at Inkster and Ecorse roads.

LeRoy Franklin, 52, of 4383 Bridgeport Court, Inkster, who was with Robinson, said he was headed south on Inkster Road when a pickup truck came through the intersection and struck the right side of his car.

A witness at the scene told police he saw the truck, driven by Paul L. Ward, 42, of 22775 Bernard, Taylor, drive through the signal on westbound Ecorse and hit Franklin's car. Police took no enforcement action.

Robinson was dead on arrival at Wayne County General Hospital at 9:15 a.m. Ward was listed in a satisfactory condition with a fractured spine. Franklin was treated and released.

The fatality was the only one reported in Western Wayne County over the Christmas weekend.

Adults graduate from class

The first semester graduation for Huron High School adult education was held on Dec. 21 in the high school lecture room.

Twenty-five adults received their diplomas as a result of the community school program, which offers the opportunity for adults to complete their education at no expense.

If you have already finished school, but know of someone who has not — tell them about this opportunity. The classes are small and informal. The High school also has many enrichment classes for you even if you have graduated.

Classes will be in the evening Monday through Thursday and you may attend as often as you like.

Each student will have his course planned out individually and work will be on an individual as well as class basis.

School budget being prepared

The operating budget for the Romulus Community School District for the 1971-72 school year is being prepared for submission to the Romulus Board of Education, School Superintendent Robert L. McConeghy reported Monday.

Superintendent McConeghy and his administrative aides are in the process of finalizing the budget for presentation to the school board at its next meeting, scheduled for Jan. 10.

McConeghy reported that the proposed preliminary budget will run approximately $500,000 over the 1970-71 operating budget.

Finalizing of the proposed budget was delayed by the Aug. 12 presidential wage and price freeze which expired Nov. 14, McConeghy stated.

The increase in the proposed budget is due to the wage and fringe benefits recently won by the school district's teachers.

Movie on drugs

A film entitled "Art Linkletter Talks With Parents" will be shown for public viewing at St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Nw Boston on Thursday, Jan. 13, and at St. John's Lutheran Church, Waltz, on Jan. 27. Both presentations will start at 7:30 p.m.

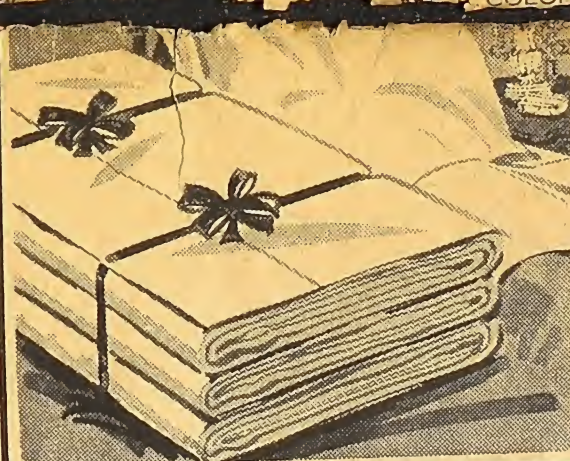

The film deals with the problem of drugs. It provides basic step-by-step procedures which can help attain an ultimate solution to the problem of drug misuse.

Other organizations in Huron Township can get the film from Mrs. Edward Wilk at 753-4390.

'The Go-Between' is a beautiful film

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

If the craftsmanship and literacy of Harold Pinter are not always recognizable, it is probably because his audiences usually get so caught up in the menace stalking behind Pinter's words it becomes difficult to examine the words themselves.

Pinter does this to you. So seldom does he seek the sunlight that one looks for a malevolent influence even where one does not exist. Thus "The Go-Between" adapted by Pinter from an L.P. Hartley novel rather than an original story, is unusual because it is set in brilliant sunlight figuratively as well as literally and one is able to spot the sparkle of Pinter's style. For Pinter abandons not only his auras, but his penchant for mundane dialog as well.

The rest of the talents are equally first-rate. Joseph Losey's direction is tasteful and temperate, while Gerry Fisher's camera becomes like an artist's canvas. Unusual too is the editing, with flash-forwards portraying an unusual counterpoint to an unusual story.

In a fine cast, newcomer Dominic Guard, 15, stands out as Leo Colstan, a poor youth invited to spend the summer holidays at the wealthy estate of a school chum. Leo becomes unusually attached to Marian Mundsley (Julie Christie), his host's beautiful and warm daughter, and also to a tenant farmer, Ted Burgess (Alan Bates).

Social distinctions are still important at this end of the Victorian era-Pinter offers a small gem of a scene in which a bathing party of young socialites discover Burgess swimming in their lake and a young snob speaks to him attempting to be cordial without sounding familiar.

The Maudsleys (Margaret Leighton and Michael Gough) have in mind a marriage between Marian and a young nobleman (Edward Fox) and Marian enlists Leo as a courier to Burgess with whom she is having an affair. What begins as a lark ultimately becomes a strain as Marian and Ted put more pressure on Leo than he can bear and Mrs. Maudsley comes close to the truth. The ultimate Victorian day of reckoning comes on Leo's birthday and it creates scars not quite erased decades later when a mature Leo (Michael Redgrave) and an elderly Marian essay a retrospect of a dim era.

The sensitivity of Guard's performance almost dwarfs several others in a fine cast.

Julie Christie, a girl in which repression and rebellion are at war, sends sparks all over the screen. Equally effective is a strong characterization by Miss Leighton.

"The Go-Between" is an unusually tasteful and beautiful film, a careful blend of exceptional talents.

Western Michigan's 1971-72 wrestling team does not have a single senior on its 26-man roster.

Wayne State University's 1971 cross country team posted its second highest victory total in the sport's history at WSU with an 11-5 mark, second only to 1963's 13-1 and beating 1970's 10-5.

County forms groups to choose examiner

Two citizens committees have been established by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners to help choose a new chief medical examiner and assist with reorganization of the county morgue.

The two committees are a Professional Credentials Committee and the Administrative Organization and Public Relations Committee. Both will advise the board's Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee, chaired by Eugene A. Sikora of Detroit (D-District 7).

Referring to the Professional Credentials Committee, Sikora said, "This group of medical experts will give us professional help in selecting a highly-qualified pathologist to serve as chief medical examiner, and we are conducting a nationwide search to locate such a person."

"With assistance from the Administrative Organization and Public Relations Committee, we hope to improve the administrative operation of the office until it is one that serves the public in the most efficient way possible," he added.

The Professional Credentials Committee, to consist of five members, will include representation from the schools of medicine from Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State universities, plus Harper Hospital and Wayne County General Hospital.

Michigan teenager pageant scheduled

The Miss Michigan teenager Pageant will be held April 21 and 22 at the beautiful Detroit Hilton.

Girls 13-17 are eligible to enter if they are U.S. citizens and residents of Michigan. There is no entrance fee.

Judging is handled by outstanding personalities from the state and is based on the contestants' scholastic achievements, civic contributions, poise, personality and appearance. No talent or bathing suit competition is involved.

The pageant is recognized by civic, political, and educational leaders across the country as a very worthwhile pageant for teenagers.

Winner from the state of Michigan will enjoy a four-day

(Aug. 23-26) all expenses paid holiday trip to the national finals in Atlanta, Georgia, with the actual finals date being Aug. 26, 1972.

Theme of the national pageant is "What's Right About America," and winners from each state will be asked to write a theme on this subject, which will be included in the judging.

Applications may be obtained by writing the Official Certification Headquarters for the State of Michigan, 126 Bunn Drive, Rockton, Ill. 61072.

All interested young ladies are urged to write for their applications now, so there will be time for certification procedures.

Law council lowers age requirement

Michigan's new lower legal age of majority has caused the state's Law Enforcement Officers Training Council to amend its minimum employment standards for the first time, Leslie VanBeveren, council executive secretary in Act 203 in 1965 with the objective of improving police training. From 1967-70, a total of 5,010 officers received basic training at state certified schools.

One change effective this year involved development of Lansing, reported.

The affected standard which previously read: "Attain the minimum age of 21 prior to receiving an oath of office" has been amended to read "Attain the minimum age as established by the hiring agency, provided that the age shall not be less than 18 years of age, or as otherwise provided by law."

The revised standard is effective Jan. 1.

The council was created by Adherence to the minimum employment standards is a prerequisite for entrance to a LEOTC certified basic recruit academy, VanBeveren noted.

Firm to prepare street paving plans

Wade and Trim & Associates, Romulus' consulting engineering firm, has been instructed to prepare construction plans for the paving of Washington Street from Ronald Street south to existing pavement in the Wyndcliff Subdivision.

A public hearing on determining the necessity of paving Washington Street was held before Romulus City Council last week. The majority of the residents and property owners affected by the street paving project were reported to be in favor of the paving.

The preliminary cost of the paving project was reported by Robert C. Wade to be $24,600.

The cost per assessable foot will be approximately $30, payable over a 15-year period.

Members of the Administrative Organization and Public Relations Committee are being recruited from both public and private agencies. Funeral directors, union representatives and communications personnel have also been invited to serve.

The committees will begin deliberations as soon as all members are chosen. Among those who have already agreed to serve on the Administrative Organization and Public Relations Committee are:

Robert White, editorial director of WJBK-TV; Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan; and James H. Cole Jr. of Cole Funeral Home in Detroit.

Belleville captures holiday cage crown

Garland pumps in 39 against Glenn

By TOM MOORADIAN
Eagle Sports Editor

When you're "hot you're hot" and Belleville's Mike Garland was hot last night as he tossed in a career high of 39 points to lead Coach Al Gates' Tigers to a 81-77 victory over Westland John Glenn at the holiday tournament, giving the visitors the championship. Garland was fantastic as he hit on 15 of 20 foot jump shots, making 18 of 29 of his attempts. He missed setting the school's scoring record. "It was one of the better games," said Glenn's Gordie Davis who saw his team's winning streak come to an end at six. "We had a slight cold spell at the beginning of the fourth quarter and they capitalized on it and that was really the difference. It was close all the way." Belleville, which won the inaugural tournament in 1967-68, has now captured the trophy two out of the four times the tournament has been held. "It was great," said Belleville Coach Al Gates. "It's always good to go up against a good team and pull it out."

The tide really shifted in favor of Belleville in the fourth when, with a three point edge, Garland stole a ball and drove in for a layup. Then Marty Miller pulled the same stunt twice, going in for a dog shot and two points, then passing off on another occasion for another two-pointer to Ed Branam.

Garland started to blanket Glenn's basket with humpers in the opening quarter when he scored 10 of his team's 21 points. But the Rockets stayed abreast as 6-6 senior pivotman Jim Williams furnished his team with eight points. Dave Carlington, always reliable in the clutch, joined the scoring duel in the second quarter as he and Williams led the Westlanders to a 44-43 halftime advantage.

Glenn managed to stay ahead in the third, taking a slim 61-60 edge into the final quarter.

Garland missed setting his school's scoring record which stands at 41. He hit on 18 field goals but made only tree of eight at the free throw line. Also in double figures for the Tigers was Branam who had 15.

Four Glenn cagers broke into the two figure column. Williams' 19 was the best individual scoring performance for the Rockets, while John Lee was close behind with 18, Carlington had 16 points and Kim Horton accounted for 11.

Glenn was on target for 21 of its 30 shots at the free throw line while Belleville managed to make 15 of 27.

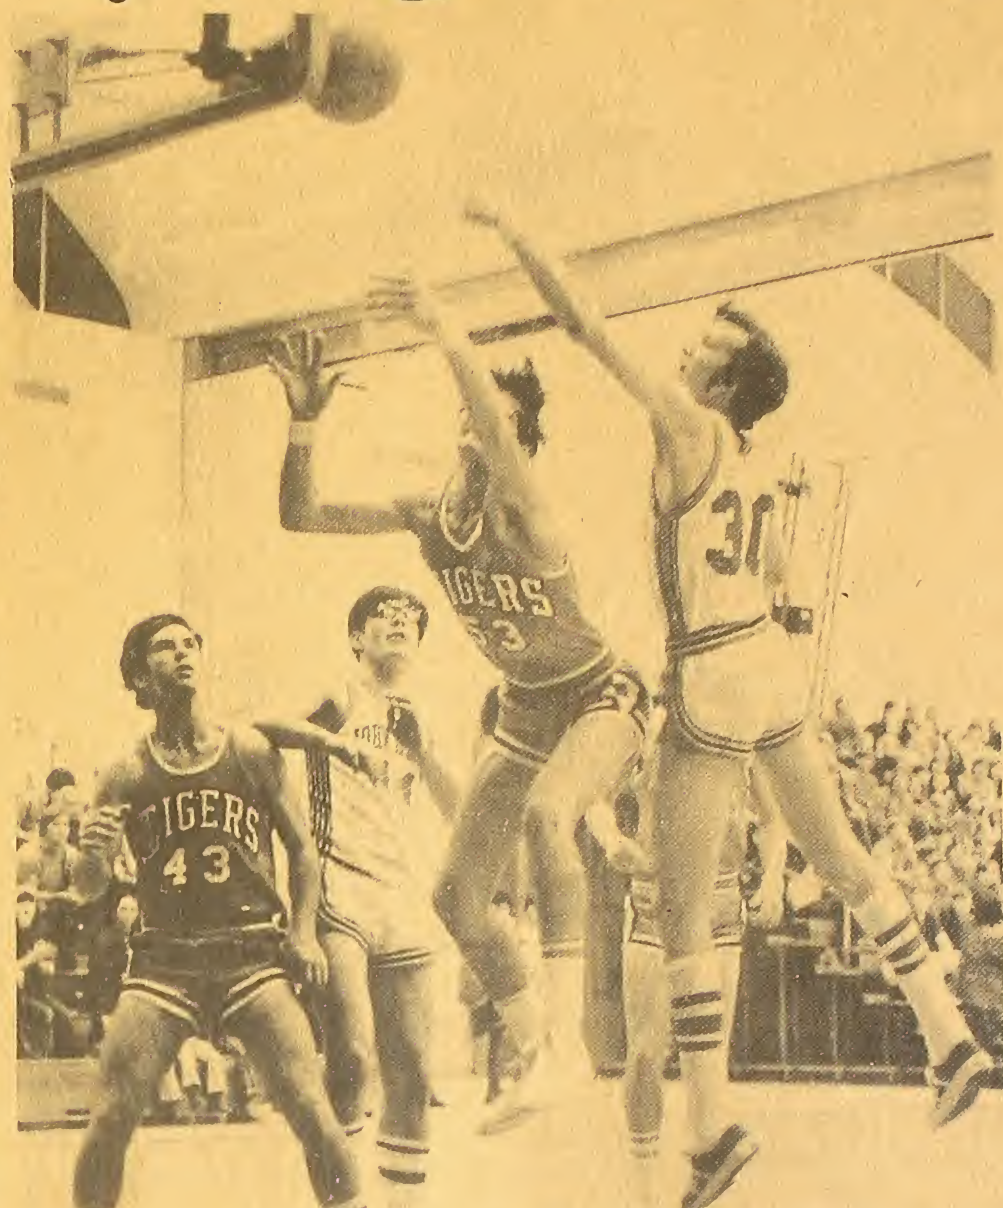

The six-game Glenn winning streak now stands as the longest basketball victory string in the history of the eight year old school.

A Christmas message

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Christmas is a time to share, so we thought we should share this column with the junior member of the sports staff, Dann Barkume. But, before we turn the column over to Dann, I would like to wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The other day my niece asked me what I wanted for Christmas and I replied with the usual, "a necktie." "Oh, come on," she insisted. "We always get you a necktie on Christmas. Ask for something else this year."

And I told her that what I want must come from within.

"And that's it?"

"If there be anything I would want or wish upon someone — friend or foe, I would wish for 'Peace of Mind.' For no matter how wealthy one is, no matter what mountains one has climbed, if he — or she — doesn't have peace of mind, then one really has nothing."

And here's Dann.

Sports writers generally aren't called upon to delve into things that don't concern themselves with athletics, but Christmas has that way of making people take their minds off of the troubles and worries of the year and sports writers are human. This column has nothing to do with sports, it is a wish that we extend to everyone.

It's Christmas Eve, most of the shopping is over, the gifts are wrapped, and Christmas dinner is defrosting as mom prepares for the deluge of relatives and dad wonders how long it will take him to recover from the financial setback that December seems to bring.

Thoughts are on happy things as Christmas brings people together. It is one day out of the year, at least, that people forget the self and express wishes of happiness and health to others. It is a time of the year for one day at least, that peace is the focal point of life, and happiness and joy reign supreme.

Now Christmas is here, and what it is today, and not really relevant. Each person holds his own beliefs, whether they be religious or secular or otherwise. Whether Christmas means the birth of Christ, or Santa Claus, or presents, or relatives, or laughter, or nostalgia; it really doesn't matter. Christmas comes but once a year, for some that is enough, but it is our wish that the spirit of Christmas lingers throughout the year.

The Christmas spirit is one thing that Christmas holds in common for everyone. It is that variable that nobody can really explain, but everyone feels and knows about.

Christmas means many things to many people. Whatever your particular belief may be, we hope that your highest ideal of happiness is realized. There are as many different concepts of Christmas as there are people on the earth — some are similar, but each one is particular to the individual who holds that belief.

Christmas is a happy time of the year with bright lights and decorations and crowded stores and parties or it is a solemn time of the year with special prayers and services and contemplation on the true meaning of the day itself. It has become both, equally, and we won't be able to change that, even if we wanted to because it has become entrenched in our society, secular and religious.

No, we won't try to change it, but we would like to offer this wish to everyone, regardless of what Christmas means to you.

May you be with those you love and who love you, may you know only laughter and happiness and may your wildest dream become a reality. May you be blessed with good health and security and may contentment surround your life. May the New Year bring you peace and prosperity and a realization of all your goals. May your God smile upon you and have mercy on you and may this holiday season be the happiest that you have ever known.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year from me to you.

Tigers oust Wayne

Belleville whipped up a sweat before the Tigers managed to oust Wayne Memorial 86-66 in the first round of the holiday tournament. Though Wayne never had the lead after Belleville carved out a 19-10 first quarter advantage, the Zebras did manage to make it uncomfortable the rest of the way.

Marty Miller pumped in 12 of his 19 points in the opening period to give the Tigers the momentum that carried them to their second victory in four starts.

Belleville realized 14 of 21 free throws as compared to Wayne's 24 of 31.

Rally wins for Romulus

With their top rebounder and scorer sitting on the sidelines nursing a knee injury, Romulus was forced to stage a last quarter rally to overcome a determined Sterling Heights.

Court Dave Court's Eagles made it four straight, claiming an 80-70 decision over their hosts.

"It was an unusual game," related Court. "We just couldn't break it open until the last quarter. It was close all the way until then."

Court and the Chiefs were without the services of John Long, a 25 ppg. scorer and top rebounder. The sophomore 6-6 pivotman injured his knee earlier in the week and is recuperating.

The two nonleague rivals exchanged baskets equally the first eight minutes and the score was deadlocked at 14-14. Sterling Heights pulled away by five points with a couple of quick layups at the end of the second quarter to take a 35-30 edge at intermission.

Romulus, with the help of a balanced scoring attack, managed to erase the deficit in the third and held a slim one point, 56-55 advantage going into the last frame.

It was no contest the last eight minutes.

Calvin Harris and Ron Kersey led the Eagles with eight and six points, respectively, in the last frame.

James Hall, a sophomore used his 6-6 frame under the boards to snare 16 rebounds and tallied 14 points to figure prominently in the Romulus attack. High man for the winners, however, was Harris who sank eight field goals and five free throws for 21 points.

Two other Romulus players managed double figures. Tony Ownes pumped in eight baskets and two free throws for 18 and Ron Kersey also had 14.

The game's individual scoring honors went to Sterling's Mike Hays, who hit on 10 from the field and picked up four free throws for 24 points. Dale Haase and Tom Rory each had 13 points.

Coach Court expects his team to be at full strength when the Eagles take on Lincoln Park on Tuesday. The Eagles will play Northville the following Friday.

The Romulus coach said, "I am satisfied with the progress of my team so far. We have been starting two sophomores and two juniors along with a senior and they have been doing the job."

County urges communities to adopt uniform litter laws

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners, acting on a resolution proposed by Commissioner John Lesinski (D-20th Dist.) is urging cities and townships in Wayne County to enact uniform ordinances against littering.

Currently local anti-littering ordinances vary widely between communities.

"The ordinances also differ in their definition of littering and do not prescribe appropriate penalties for their violation," says Lesinski, who represents the eastern half of Inkster.

County peace officers are being hampered in their efforts to eliminate littering because local ordinances are so inconsistent. If cities and townships passed identical ordinances, it would lighten the task of law enforcement officials and save many taxpayer dollars," Lesinski said.

The resolution, adopted Dec. 20, emphasizes that a clearly described penalty and a precise definition is needed to successfully combat littering.

An ordinance following the uniform guidelines proposed in the resolution would apply to both public and private property, including lakes and rivers.

Act 106 of the Public Acts of 1963 is the basis for the uniform provisions proposed in the resolution. It classifies littering as a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or up to a year's imprisonment.

The act defines litter to mean "all rubbish, refuse, waste material, garbage, offal, paper, glass, cans, bottles, trash, debris or other foreign substances of every kind and description."

Also under terms of Act 106, violators can be ordered to clean up litter, their own as well as litter from other sources.

Company offers tips on proving property losses

Whether you live in a home, apartment or elsewhere, you are likely to have valuable personal property. This might include sterling, paintings and other works of art, china, crystal, collections and other possessions which can be substantiated by a photographic inventory.

The Insurance Information Institute points out that most people can easily take flash or available light photos with either black-and-white or color film using their family cameras.

Several pictures taken from different angles will give a better idea of what the property looked like on all sides. The photos should bear the date taken. Should you suffer a loss due to robbery or break-in, such photographs are helpful to police in their recovery attempts. In addition, property lost or damaged by fire or in some other way is more readily evaluated by claims adjusters when they are assisted by visual support.

What must you provide to an insurance company to prove your loss of personal property?

According to the Insurance Information Institute, you must provide reasonable proof of ownership and value and condition of the property. This applies whether or not your loss was caused by burglary, hold-up, fire or any other insured cause.

A suggestion for helping the insurance company (and yourself) in this matter is to have pictures of your valuable property and possessions.

Photos can supplement the written inventory, which definitely should be kept. This record includes date, place and amount of purchase and should be supported by a paid receipt or, sometimes, an appraisal. Serial numbers and other identifying features also should be entered in the record.

Remember that a "register-on-film" is not a substitute for a conscientiously gathered inventory, however, but only supplements it. Hopefully you will never need either one.

Airport adds parking spaces

Eight hundred additional parking spaces at Detroit Metropolitan Airport, Romulus, will be available for the peak holiday traffic with the completion of the new deck on the existing parking structure.

Michael Berry, chairman of the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners, which operates the airport, praised the contractor, Markward & Karafillis, Inc., for meeting the Dec. 15 deadline and providing for the anticipated rush.

The second phase of the contract will add 1,200 spaces for a total of 2,000 additional spaces.

"The contractor in this case put the project on overtime status several weeks to ensure that we would have the needed additional parking and this certainly proves our confidence in his design-build concept of operation," Berry said. Berry also suggested that sight-seers avoid the airport during the rush season.

Holiday week-end takes them out-of-town

THE FITCHES — Jim, Carol Pam, Holly, and Cindy—drove to Hillsdale to spend the holiday week-end with Jim's folks, the Glen Fitches, who entertained the family at dinner Christmas Day. Sharing the festivities were Jim's two brothers and their wives, the Robert Fitches from Pontiac and the Dave Fitches from East Lansing, as well as their aunt, Miss Jean Fitch of Lansing.

Before leaving Belleville, though, Jim and Carol invited their Second Street neighbors in for a little get-together. Socializing over dessert and punch were the Willard Dockers, the Charles Cabanas, the Rudy Howards and daughter Penny, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Fields.

AFTER BREAKFAST and gift-time at their own home on North Shore Drive, the Carl Russells with son, Steve (an EMU freshman), and daughter, Joy, journeyed to Fort Wayne, Indiana Christmas Day where they were dinner and overnight guests of Carl's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Burt, and son, Jeff. Their mother, Mrs. Mildred Sommers, also joined the family.

WEEK-ENDING IN Bay City over Christmas were Roger and Aileen Allyn of Belleville Road who were houseguests of her brother-in-law and sister, the Gerald McCormacks. Making the trip northward with the Allens were her parents and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dietz, Eddie and Paul, from Livonia.

Parents arrive for holiday reunion

AN EARLY observance of the holiday was held Monday evening, December 20, when Marge Roberts of Lake Pointe Pass entertained members of her family at dessert. Her husband, John, was missing from the scene since he was on a flight to Europe for Universal Airlines.

Making the gathering extra special was the presence of Marge's folks, the Bert G. Smiths, who'd driven in from Athens, Alabama for the first holiday reunion in a number of years.

Also attending were Marge's sisters and their husbands, Opal and L.A. Watts from Garden City and Ruth and Jim Nelson of Ypsilanti; and Mike and Vicki Barnett and their two little ones, Tytti and baby Connie (whom the Smiths were seeing for the first time.)

The Nelsons' plans to be in New Mexico to see their brand new granddaughter during the holidays prompted the pre-Christmas gettogether.

The Robertses were also planning a trip to Cleveland during the week for a Yuletide exchange with John's mother, Mrs. A.B. Roberts, and his sister and husband, Ann and Earl Blewitt.

Family breakfast

Donald's Christmas

EARLY CHRISTMAS morn, the Arthur Shephards of Elwell Road had their offspring over for breakfast and around-the-tree festivities.

Since their son, Jim, was scheduled for holiday duty with Michigan Bell, he and his wife, Pat, were invited in early so they could share in the fun of seeing their nephews and niece. Leslie, Shawn and Shari Ferguson, tear into their presents. Having missed out on the family party the night before (they were with Pat's folks, the Stanley Sliwas), they exchanged Yuletide wishes with the Roger Fergusons and Brian Shephard.

Plans are varied for Christmas Day

DETROIT WAS the destination Christmas Day for Joe and Dorothy Skszek, Karen (on vacation from E.M.U.) and Tim, who motored in to the home of Dorothy's brother and sister-in-law, the John Krzezewskis, for the holiday repast. Also making the trip from Belleville were Gene and Ruth Ann Duda and their four youngsters from Clarence Street.

Towards evening the group departed for a call on their mother, Mrs. Sarah Duda, also of Detroit, where the Mike Migals of Dearborn and Irene Pentiack and family of Royal Oak shared in the occasion.

GATHERED 'ROUND the dinner table at the Justin Emerson home Christmas Day were their daughter and son-in-law, Pat and Bob Groeschner, who'd motored here from E. Norwalk, Connecticut for a five-day visit; Bill and Mary Anne Emerson from Ypsilanti; Rick Emerson (home from his junior classes at Michigan State); and Mindy Cooper from Whitehall.

Also on hand during the past week was the eldest Emerson son, Captain Sam Emerson, his wife, Sue, and their little guy, Matthew, who'd driven north from Fort McClellan, Alabama. Enroute to Sam's new assignment at Fort Riley, Kansas, the threesome divided their time between Belleville and Livonia where Sue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reeves, reside.

THE THURSDAY before Christmas, the Roger Fergusons had his sister and brother-in-law, Marie and Jim Dozer, in from Ann Arbor. Since they would be missing from the family scene Christmas Eve, they had dinner together a day early.

On the 24th at the Ferguson's Crandell Court home, there was a gathering of the clans as both Roger's and Diane's families came in for the evening. Each of the ladies brought a special dessert to be shared and after playing games planned by Verdys Shephard, they all drove off to the First United Methodist Church's Christmas Eve program in which Brian Shephard had part.

Those attending included the Fay Fergusons, Bob and Luci Ferguson and family, Richard Ferguson and the Arthur Shephards

DICK AND PATT GAMBLE of Expressway Drive had a full calendar for the holiday season with a fondue party for close friends on the 18th kicking off their entertaining. Dinner and a gift exchange were on the agenda for Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watson, David Duford, Karen Kingsley, and Steven Watson.

On the 23rd, Patt did a repeat of her first successful fondue and had Dick's sister and husband, Nancy and Dan O'Hara, and their son Stephen, of Ypsilanti in for the evening, the O'Hares reciprocating on Christmas night.

Then on Christmas Eve for dinner, the Gambles played host to Patt's parents, the Warren Dufords; her uncle and aunt, the Vern Kiffs; and her brother, David Duford, who opened presents and emptied Santa's stockings after dining.

DROPPING IN on the Al Cicottes of Lilac Lane early Christmas morning were his mother and dad, the Alva Cicottes from Melvindale, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Broyles of Lincoln Park.

After feasting Italian-style (on Dena's special lasagna) the Cicottes gathered up their quintet—Al, Mary, Greg, Clifford, and Bridget—and headed for Dearborn where they visited with Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Caputo then returned to Belleville to call on neighbors, the Floyd Thetfords.

TOGETHER FOR Christmas for the first time in five years, the Hudge family dined enmasse at Tom and Grace Hudge's Sumpter Road home at five in the afternoon. Honored guests from Tarpon Springs, Florida were the Leonard Huges who were given a champagne tribute prior to dinner.

Present for the co-op buffet were Ed and Mary Anne Huges with Nancy and Nora from Ann Arbor; Bill and Flo Hudge and their trio, Mike, Judy and Cindy; Jim and Shirley Hudge and little daughter, Theresa; and the Bert Smiths with Luanne (home from Kalamazoo College), Sue and Carol; and Kevin Meyer.

Of course, Sherie, Tommie and Gary Hudge were on hand to help greet their relatives including callers later in the evening, Bill and Mary Ann Emerson from Ypsilanti.

Their gatherings are traditional

ON CHRISTMAS EVE the Ernil Jones family usually joins Sally's brother-in-law, Bob and Susan Mayo, for buffet supper at their Alden Drive home. This year was no different EXCEPT that there was a new little Jones tagging along—10-weeks old Kenneth Ernil.

Also present were Ernil's mother, Mrs. Edith Jones of Monroe, and Sally's parents, the Louis Mayos of Ypsilanti, who the following day were guests at the Jones' Clarence Street home.

CARRYING OUT THEIR TRADITION OF HOSTING A FAMILY DINNER ON THE HOLIDAY, THE John Bokons sat down to dinner with their two married daughters, Jan, her husband Joe Ross, and their two youngsters Joey and Julie, from Garden City; and Barb, her husband, Jim, and their foursome, Jimmie, Kimberly, Billie, and Bobbie, of Belleville. Two other daughters, Mary and Kathy, and their son, Johnnie, also took part in exchanging gifts prior to dinner.

Amy Vanderbilt's etiquette

Gifts require a 'thank you'

By AMY VANDERBILT

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: I would like you to stress in your column to the young ladies of today the importance of thank-you notes for wedding and birthday gifts. Last month I sent the fifth wedding gift in two years for which I received not even so much as an acknowledgment. I consider this unforgivably inconsiderate. I think even those of my own generation (25) need a rude awakening. — V.N.

The real answer to unacknowledged gifts is no gifts in the future. I know many women who have ceased sending gifts to young people for wedding, birthday or Christmas for this very reason — they never get an acknowledgment. Perhaps this is the only way young people will understand — if they care at all.

Let's take baby gifts first. A first-time mother may come to what seems unbearable confusion — irregular hours, strange new responsibilities — and she thinks she just doesn't have time to write people to thank them for the gifts that come in to the baby. I have written in this column about this problem and have suggested that the acknowledgments may very dictate them to his secretary, if he's lucky enough to have one, along these lines.

Dear Marianne and Phil, The baby was enchanted to receive the pretty pink blanket, and I know that Betty was. She has asked me to thank you promptly as she is new to this job of baby-tending. Until things straighten out, she feels she doesn't have a minute to do the many things she wants to do — like writing notes such as these.

Thanks from us all. On the wedding gifts, at big weddings acknowledgment cards (see my book in your library) may be sent which indicate that personal notes will follow at a later date. And follow they must. They may be quite brief and should mention what the gift was and be signed by the bride alone. This is something that no one else may do for her. Three months is the outside limit for such acknowledgment.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: We are planning a cake table, and one each for fruit punch and champagne for our daughter's wedding reception. I have three tablecloths in ecru-one Point Venice, one Alencon an instead of the white cloths normally used at a reception? — Mrs. E.C., Cherry Hill, N.J."

By all means use your lovely cloths, but over bare tables.

"Dear Miss Vanderbilt: Please advise whether or not grandmothers stand in the receiving lines at wedding receptions. This is the custom here. — Mrs. G.W., Cheraw, S.C."

Grandmothers usually don't stand in the receiving line, but if this is the custom where you are, you may wish to follow it. Perhaps the grandmothers are spry there.

Christmas is for children--no doubt about it!

SUCH ENTHUSIASM! — If Holly Fitch (left) and Kathy Jarrett are any indication, Santa's choice of present at the Kiwanis Club's Christmas party couldn't have been any better. As soon as they opened the "Bug Out" game the twosome competed in a rousing SISTER ACT — Among the many youngsters at last Tuesday's Kiwanis Christmas party were the daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Troxell of 44310 Harmony Lane, Belleville. Laura, four, (left) and Linda, one and a half, look over the gifts and candy canes which Santa passed out after dinner. The annual gathering, attended by some 85 persons, was held in St. Anthony's School hall.

JUST WHAT I WANTED! — Probably Santa's most avid Belleville fan is little Susan Mathews, daughter of Bill and Sharon Matthews of 368 Church St., Belleville. Susan not only received a miniature set of pots and pans but proceeded to show the "man in red" just how each item worked and to tell him what she planned to cook for dinner. Susan and her two brothers were included in the Kiwanis Club's list of children attending the traditional holiday dinner party Tuesday evening.

County board's '71 accomplishments detailed

An outstanding record was compiled by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners during 1971, Board Chairman Robert E. FitzPatrick told the members in a year-end progress report.

FitzPatrick detailed the accomplishments of the board at its final meeting of the year Dec. 20. It was also the last meeting of his one-year term as chairman. Board members will elect next year's chairman Jan. 4. FitzPatrick said he will be a candidate.

At least a dozen major steps to improve the county government, plus economy measures which could save $5.2 million this fiscal year, were listed in his report.

"This has not been an easy year," FitzPatrick declared. "Judicial and legislative decisions beyond our control have worsened the precarious financial condition of Wayne County by mandating expenditure of additional large sums."

Other problems he cited were the deaths of Commissioners Joseph Cardinal and Frederick Yates, and criticism which, he said, sometimes appeared to stem from "misunderstanding and thinly-veiled attempts to preserve established fiefdoms in county government."

"I have often used the expression that everybody wants progress, but no one wants change," he stated. "Never was this more true than in county government."

The board "has been both responsive and responsible in representing the people of Wayne County," Frederick declared.

FitzPatrick listed the following major steps to improve the structure and function of county government, and to "provide central control where it has been lacking until now."

— "By taking direct control of the filling of all job vacancies and of all overtime work, we have increased productivity and realized a savings projected at an annual rate of $5.2 million."

— Creation of the function of fiscal adviser under the board to overcome the lack of checks and balances in the county fiscal structure and to maintain continuous review of all spending.

— Withholding of ten per cent of all departmental appropriations "to give the board the time, the flexibility and the controls needed to conduct an effective fiscal review of all operations."

— Creation of the board's office of corporation counsel to give the board legal services "when we need and desire them, not only when another elective office decides to grant them to us."

— Adoption of a resolution declaring the board's intention to put a county home rule proposition on the next county-wide election ballot.

FitzPatrick said studies are under way to improve the functioning of the Medical Examiner's Office, the Civil Service Commission and the Labor Relations Board. In addition, the possible merger of the Detroit and Wayne County health departments is being evaluated.

The county chairman also listed measures taken to improve conditions at the county jail, which he described as "perhaps the most difficult problem to confront Wayne County in recent history."

He said the elected board "inherited" the jail problem upon first taking office three years ago.

He said complete renovation of the plumbing, ventilation and lighting at the jail, at a cost of nearly $2 million, is under way after being stalled by the overcrowding at the jail. He noted that the jail population has been reduced from about 1,400 to 875 since the elected board took office, "through a number of programs which this board helped to bring about."

Other jail improvements started or planned include:

A reception and medical diagnostic center, to be constructed with the help of a $750,000 federal grant; a Jan. 1, 1973 target date for a start on the building of additional jail capacity; a federally-funded study of the entire Wayne County criminal justice system to identify the type of jail needed; and creation of a citizens committee in conjunction with New Detroit to help develop solutions to the jail problems, with the aid of a $150,000 New Detroit grant.

"In related fields," FitzPatrick stated, "our planning of a new rehabilitation facility for juvenile delinquents is well under way, with the help of a $90,000 federal grant."

FitzPatrick commended the board for having "the courage to make one of the hardest — and I believe one of the greatest — decisions in the history of Wayne County when we approved the riverfront stadium project in September."

"Personally, I am convinced the stadium will be a source of pride and economic growth, not only to Detroit and Wayne County, but to all of Michigan," he added.

In the area of health and welfare, he noted that construction began on a 360-bed nursing care facility at Wayne County General Hospital. He also cited:

— The board's demand for strong enforcement of the county air pollution control ordinance, which got immediate results from a successful court action against Peerless Cement Co.

— A $1.2 million federal grant to the Detroit-Wayne County Community Mental Health Services Board to rehabilitate heroin addicts.

— A subcommittee inquiry into profiteering under the FHA mortgage program and the subcommittee's request to the state attorney general for a grand jury probe of the situation.

FitzPatrick said "months of hard work" culminated in "the historic agreement for the sheriff to provide all police services for the City of Romulus," and said it may be the forerunner of contracts for the county to provide various local services elsewhere.

He also noted that the board set the stage for resumption of federal anti-poverty funds coming into suburban Wayne County and formed a citizens committee to bring federal economic development money into the county.

FitzPatrick said his term as chairman "has given me a new appreciation of the compelling need for a full-time county executive." He said the board should consider that problem in the coming year.

He also called for early consideration of County Planning Commission recommendations that the board set up an Environmental Quality Advisory Committee and a County Housing Commission.

REAP helps prevent farm-related pollution

The Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP) for 1972 is being developed at the grass roots level by local County Development Groups in 83 counties in Michigan.

Nick Smith, chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said that the REAP program has as its major purpose the improvement of the quality of life for all people. This improvement is accomplished through a cost-sharing program with farmers to prevent or abate agriculture related pollution of water, land, and air and to conserve agricultural soil, water, woodland and wildlife resources.

"While farmers are the primary participants in practices, we all receive benefits from the program," Smith said. "Naturally, the local community where the practices are carried out benefits the most. Not just the farmer himself and his farm neighbors but the whole community gets a boost from the pollution abatement and conservation practices which the farmer carries out."

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service administers REAP through County ASC Committees elected by farmers in the county. Each REAP practice approved by the County Committee must have related soil and water benefits.

Smith said that pollution problems associated with agriculture, like those in industry and municipalities, can affect everyone and can sometimes be so expensive to solve that an individual citizen cannot afford to undertake the task alone.

Cost-sharing by the government is generally only a small part of the overall cost to the farmer. Over 150 pollution-abatement projects will be carried out under the 1971 program.

Church group brightens Yule holiday for others

The boys and girls of the Calvary Baptist Church youth group, headed by Fred Hanks, youth director, took their Christmas carols aboard a gaily decorated church bus and with a lighted Christmas tree tagging along behind, brought their songs, laughter and good cheer on a tour.

About 35 youngsters, members of the Senior High Crusaders Youth Group, met at the church just after dark on Monday and Tuesday evenings last week.

Among those who took part in caroling were Larry Hale, Rob Roscoe, T. W. Heath, Jeff Clark, Randy Clark, Alan Hale, Don Hale, Billy Yates, Colin Jordan, Ben Hayes, Jeannie Flowers, Annie Flowers, Donna Hayes, Bob Kahl, Larry Pennington, Sue Simmons, Harold Locke and Joanne Cikaro.

Others who attended were Bruce Mulberry, Terri

Mulberry, Ben Hayes, Jerry Goodlink, Jim Goodlink, Steve Wolf, Don Moore, David Hutchinson, Dawn Hutchinson, Cindy Hutchinson, Ron Bobo, Cindy Chadwick, Eric Moore, Linda Trent, Barbara McCollough, Karyn Hoyle, Pam Bartley, Dianna Petri, Debby Seward, Cindy Seward and Delphine Tucker.

Wednesday night the young people presented a contemporary Christmas play.

CHEERLEADERS PRESENT GIFT — South Junior High School's seventh and eighth grade cheerleaders performed at the school's Dec. 19 pre-holiday assembly. The cheerleaders then presented their sponsor

Seniors are reminded to apply for exemptions

Tax relief will be a reality for many older citizens this year.

The Michigan Commission

Seniors can join free club

Senior citizens residing in the Van Buren Public School District can attend athletic events, concerts, plays and adult education classes free as members of the Gold Card Club.

Citizens, 65 years old or older, must apply for membership in the school district's Gold Card Club.

Applications can be obtained by calling the office of school superintendent, 697-9123.

on Aging reminds all people 65 and older that under Michigan's revised Homestead Tax Exemption law they might now qualify for this exemption.

Applicants, who must file for this exemption each year at their local assessor's office, may apply from Jan. 4 until sometime in March - a date set by each local assessor.

Persons who qualify are exempt from the taxes on the first $2,500 of the valuation of their home. Last year, the average exemption was around $130.

To qualify under the revised Homestead Tax Exemption law which was passed by the legislature, persons must have lived in Michigan for five of the past 10 years, and in their home for at least six of the preceding 12 months. Total income from all sources cannot exceed $6,000.

Assessors will require legal proof of age (a drivers license can not be used), proof of homeownership such as a deed land contract or mortgage; the applicant's social security number and a statement of income.

Tenant stockholders of cooperative housing units must bring a photostat of the tax bill, an ownership certificate and the contract that was signed.

Under the revised law there are no restrictions placed on the value of the property. That is, no matter how much the applicant's homestead is worth, if he meets the other requirements he should be able to obtain this exemption.

This exemption is an outright grant from the State of Michigan to the local community. There are no lien provisions so no attempt will be made by the state or local government to collect from the heirs or otherwise attach the property.

Wayne State University freshman fencer Steve Danosi was runnerup in the 9th Annual Norman H. Birnkrant 1971 Invitational Sabre Tournament in Michigan to 1971 Pan-American team member Bill Goering.

Ford introduces bill for massive school aid

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman William D. Ford (D-Mich.), joined by five Michigan Democratic colleagues, introduced legislation recently to give the nation's faltering educational system a massive infusion of federal funds.

The bill, entitled the Quality School Assistance Act, of 1972, would pump an estimated $12 billion into America's schools in the 1972-73 fiscal year, and even larger amounts in succeeding years.

Joining Congressman Ford as co-sponsors were Congresswoman Martha Griffiths and Congressmen John Dingell, James G. O'Hara and Lucien N. Nedzi, all representing Detroit or suburban districts.

"Our educational system has reached a crisis situation," Congressman Ford declared. "It is time to take some determined action. We must stop trying to treat a broken arm with a band-aid."

The proposed legislation has three basic provisions; it provides for greatly expanded general aid to education, special construction and modernization funds for impoverished school districts with overcrowded facilities, and extends the existing program of aid to impacted school districts (those with heavy concentrations of Federal employees).

Congressman Ford, a member of the House Education and Labor Committee, explained that the general aid would be allocated on a formula based upon the enrollment of all children aged five through 17.

Federal grants would equal 20 per cent of the state average per-pupil expenditure for elementary and secondary education, or 20 per cent of the national average, whichever were greater. This percentage would rise five per cent a year until 1976, when it would remain at 35 per cent. Districts with large concentrations of low-income families would receive additional amounts equal to one-third of the basic per-pupil grant for each child from a low-income family.

Money for construction and modernization would be based on an assumption of 30 students as an ideal maximum per classroom. A district would receive $500 for each child in excess of that maximum. Priority in funding would be given to districts now operating on half-day sessions.

In a speech given on the House floor when he introduced the bill, Congressman Ford declared:

"My experience on the Education and Labor Committee has convinced me that the overwhelming majority of educators are committed to the twin goals of quality education and equality in education. However, they are hampered by a common problem in their efforts to achieve these goals.

"They lack adequate resources, and the result is overcrowded classrooms, deteriorated and inferior facilities, half-day sessions and low-quality education.

"Local revenue sources are virtually dried up. Property taxes, which account for approximately 98 per cent of all local tax revenue, cannot be raised any higher. People are now looking to the federal government to provide the necessary additional funds."

Congressman Ford noted that the federal government's contribution to elementary and secondary education now amounts to less than seven per cent of the total national expenditure.

"A school study financed by the Office of Education recommended that public schools receive at least 22 per cent, and preferably 30 per cent, of their total revenue from the federal government," Congressman Ford said. "Our proposal would meet this need.

"Only by making a commitment such as this will we be able to meet the challenge and fulfill the goal of bringing quality education, and equality in education, to every neighborhood in America," he asserted.

"We have recently heard a great deal about busing school children to achieve this very same goal," Congressman Ford said. "This proposal is an alternative to the need for busing. This bill designed to eliminate the need for busing by providing every student in this country with an equal educational opportunity and a quality education right in his own neighborhood.

"It is designed to accomplish these twin goals by providing the type of financial aid which is so urgently needed by all the school districts in this country, and by providing special financial assistance to those districts with special needs."

Congressman Ford said he would seek hearings early next year by the General Education Subcommittee, on which he is the ranking member.

The young woman who wins the title of Miss Detroit Photo Show 1972 will receive her crown in the 8:30 p.m. finals and will reign over the show for its four-day run, Jan. 20-23. She will receive a $350 scholarship to the John Robert Powers School as one of her prizes.

The first and second runners-up will receive $150 and $75 scholarships, respectively.

Competition is open to single girls between the ages of 18 and 25.

Applicants should submit a recent photograph (may be snapshot or Polaroid) and include name, address, home and business phones, age, height, weight, measurements, dress size and brief information about her hobbies and interests.

All applications should be mailed to Miss Detroit Photo Show Contest, care of Miss Judi March, director, John Robert Powers School, 16250 Northland Dr., Suite 229, Southfield, Mich. 48075, and must be postmarked by Saturday, Jan. 15.

Hours for the show on Thursday and Friday are from 6 to 11 p.m.; on Saturday, 1 to 11 p.m., and on the final day, Sunday, Jan. 23, from 1 to 9 p.m.

periods a year ago, 20 persons were killed during Christmas and 21 during New Year's.

The State Police will devote maximum patrol coverage from 3 p.m. to at least 9 p.m. each day of the holiday periods. Special attention will be focused on highway sections having bad accident experience.

Michigan's traffic toll so far this year already has reached the 2,036 mark, making it the eighth year in a row to top the 2,000 level. The full count for 1970 was 2,177. Record year for deaths was 2,487 in 1969.

LESSONS IN FIRST AID — Instructions in all phases of first aid and in the handling of emergency heart cases were held recently at the Belleville Senior High School last Thursday afternoon. The students were members of the teaching staff. The victim in the demonstration is South Junior High School Principal Don White. Students are teachers Mary White and William Nagy. At left is Dale Hoyt, instructor-trainee for the Michigan Heart Association.

State police to operate special holiday patrols

The Michigan State Police will operate special holiday patrols beginning at noon Friday of the New Year weekend and extending to midnight Sunday, Col. John R. Plants, department director, reported.

Local police departments have issued a call for prudent driving over the New Year's Holiday.

For traffic statistic purposes the weekend period will be 54 hours long, from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

Plants noted that Michigan's traffic death toll so far this year is showing about a three per cent reduction compared with last year at this time.

In a special appeal to drivers and pedestrians, Plants added:

"Let's continue this improved record right through to the end of the year. December's holiday season of good will is an especially appropriate time for drivers and pedestrians to exert whatever extra effort is necessary to safeguard themselves and others in traffic."

In the 78-hour holiday periods a year ago, 20 persons were killed during Christmas and 21 during New Year's.

The State Police will devote maximum patrol coverage from 3 p.m. to at least 9 p.m. each day of the holiday periods. Special attention will be focused on highway sections having bad accident experience.

Michigan's traffic toll so far this year already has reached the 2,036 mark, making it the eighth year in a row to top the 2,000 level. The full count for 1970 was 2,177. Record year for deaths was 2,487 in 1969.

Beekeepers reimbursed for losses due to pesticides

In recent years the widespread use of pesticides has created a hazardous environment for many honeybee populations, according to Nick Smith, chairman of the Michigan State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The honeybee, he explained, is vitally important to both the Michigan and entire U.S. economy since it is the major pollinator of legume seeds, fruit and vegetable crops.

Honeybees, he pointed out, provide about 85 per cent of insect pollination of these crops, worth approximately four billion dollars, a sizeable part of the agricultural economy.

In addition, the honey crop itself is valued at about $41 million nationally each year.

Under the 1970 Agricultural Act, he added, an indemnity payment program was authorized for bee losses due to pesticides. Smith pointed out that the indemnity payment program for beekeepers is retroactive to Jan. 1, 1967, and will continue through Dec. 31, 1973.

To be eligible for payments, he explained, beekeepers must file applications with their County ASD Committee and must prove loss or damage to bee colonies because of pesticides.

A beekeeper filing for payment must satisfy the following requirements, he said: show that his own pesticide application, if any, in no way contributed to his bee losses; that he took reasonable care to protect his bees; and after exposure, took reasonable care to reduce losses if he had prior notice of the use of pesticides in the vicinity of his colonies.

Losses of bees must have been due entirely by the use of pesticides approved by the USDA. Current losses, he stated, must include a written statement by a disinterested person and full information regarding the loss including cause, extent, date and location.

Smith emphasized that for retroactive losses, that is for the years of 1967-70, similar information is required but claims for indemnity payments must be filed at the local county ASCS office by Dec. 31, 1971.

Claims for losses occurring in 1971, he added, must be filed within one year from the date of loss. Only by providing for adequate bee populations, he said, can we maintain our present production levels and a viable agriculture.

Subdivision plans approved by city

The final plat plans for the construction of the Meadowdale Subdivision and the Greenview Subdivision 3 have been approved by the Romulus City Council.

The proposed Meadowdale project, consisting of 123 dwelling units, is slated for the Leroy Street and Middlebelt Road area.

Greenview Subdivision is located east of Harrison Street and north of Leroy Street. It will contain 12 dwelling units.

The Greenview building project when completed will consist of five subdivisions containing a total of 534 dwelling units. They are Greenview Subdivision 1, Greenview Heights, Greenview Hills, Greenview Meadows, Greenview Valley and Greenview Valley 2.

The subdivisions are being built by Kaufman and Broad Builders.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Cheerful voices, sad voices, young voices, old voices, soft and loud voices are once again saying, "Happy New Year." It is a pleasant tradition. But just exactly what does Happy New Year mean? A wish for continued good health, or better health? A better job? More money? More comfort, more conveniences? Or perhaps less worry? Less fear? Less uncertainty, less anxiety? Whatever it means to you, your friends wish you well when they say, "Happy New Year."

But, as the saying goes, "Wishing won't make it so." Your friends can try to help you be happy, but they can't guarantee it. It depends on you, not them. The reason is clear and known. GENUINE happiness can never be found in self centered thoughts. If we would make and keep a New Year resolution to think less of our private satisfactions, to more willingly think and act in a way to bring happiness to those whose lives we touch, then, and then only can we be truly happy. Impossible? Not improbable perhaps for some, but not impossible for most of us. Our voice joins others in wishing you a Happy New Year - and may it be genuine...

Edgemont fifth graders learn Spanish customs

"Senora" Salisbury's (Mrs. Mona Salisbury) fifth grade class at Edgemont Elementary School, Belleville, has been learning Spanish this year with "Senorita Silverman" (Miss Cynthia Silverman) a student teacher from the University of Michigan.

Each student has a Spanish name as do most objects in the classroom. The students can now talk about the weather, the time, school and the family in "español." They have learned Spanish in a conversational way and shown their ability by performing and taping dialogues in Spanish.

The learning of Spanish as a language has served as a basis for appreciating the many cultures and peoples in our world. The class has spent some time acquiring a feeling for the people who speak Spanish and for other people and languages from different parts of the world. They have been exposed to languages and cultures from South America, Europe and the Middle East.

HVCA officers named for snowmobile races

The appointment of officers to head the 4th Annual Snow Mobile Races to be sponsored by the Huron Valley Conservation Association was announced Monday by Dale Uranis, president of the association.

This year's snowmobile races will be held on Feb. 5-6 on Ford Lake, where last year's event was conducted.

Named by Uranis were: Jack Begin, chairman, Douglas Traskis and Wes Owens, co-chairman. The following were named to a steering committee: Rod Bly, Gordon Belaire, Ernie Hammacher, Blake Fry and Ken Reed. This committee will participate in setting up plans and operations for the races.

The fifth graders are very proud of their Spanish knowledge and the fun they have had with it. They had a complete Spanish fiesta including Spanish music, food and pinatas.

In keeping with the season they learned about Christmas in Spanish and about Christmas around the world. Singing Christmas Carols in Spanish was most enjoyable.

LEARNING SPANISH CULTURE — Fifth grade students at Edgemont Elementary School, Belleville, have been learning Spanish life and culture this year. A group of the fifth grade class is shown in Spanish garb. In class each student has a Spanish name, as do objects in the classroom. The students have learned conversational Spanish and have shown their ability by performing and taping dialogues.

Moose Notes

By Edward J. Shumbera

It was a joyous Christmas party that was held at the Moose Home on Sunday, Dec. 19, with more than 650 children attending. Each of the two parties consisted of cartoon movies, sing-a-long and Santa passing out gifts. Brother Douglas Harden did a fine job as chairman of this year's Christmas at the Moose home, for the children of Belleville community.

The nominations to fill the vacancy of the three-year trustee are Brothers Emmett Mills, Terry Shippy, Kenneth Reed and Richard Davis.

Election for this office will be held on Wednesday, Jan.

12, between the hours of Noon and 7 p.m. Members in good standing will be allowed to vote. All members should check their dues receipts. Many will become due on Dec. 31.

Chairman Carl Higgins of the sports committee reports that a new pool league will be under way about the middle of January. All those who are interested should contact Brother Carl.

All members are reminded to contact the new secretary, Edward Shumbera, in regard to any information concerning the Loyal Order of Moose, Belleville Lodge No. 934, at the Moose Home or by phone.

The secretary's home phone number is 697-7540.

Volunteer mothers help at Riverside

A volunteer mother program has recently been started at Riverside Elementary School, 25485 Middlebelt Rd., New Boston.

Aimed at helping the children and the school, the program has already met success. School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff reported.

The mothers are helping in the reading program by listening to individual children read and giving them some "individual attention," reinforcing word-building skills and basic sight words.

Others are helping children in the lunchroom and also on the playground during the noon recess.

"We feel these 'Moms' are providing a great service and hope their involvement will continue to bring added success to our school program," Antcliff said.

New television taken from home

A break-in at the home of Martin Hoffman, located at 661 Savage Rd., Belleville, is under investigation by the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Division.

Entry into the home was through a back door that had been broken off its hinges. The home was ransacked.

Taken in the recent break-in were a portable television set, an electric clock, ladies wrist watch and a jewelry box containing assorted jewelry. Mrs. Hoffman reported Monday that the portable television set had been purchased to be used by her husband who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Hoffman was at her daughter's home in Taylor when her home was broken into. A neighbor saw the back door open and called her. Mrs. Hoffman is hopeful that the thief or thieves return the TV set.

This funny world

General tendencies: Much nervousness, restlessness and quick wit are in the works today and tonight along with more deliberate ones, it is necessary that you do make a special point to channel your energy wisely so you won't be dashing hither and yon without really accomplishing very much.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You have many duties of all sorts ahead of you, but you need to whip up enthusiasm early for them. Then all goes beautifully. That data can now be secured that was difficult to get before. Keep Busy.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) A good day to make those radical changes now that can help increase your income appreciably. Conversing with a banker can bring forth the information you want. Get advice from big businessmen.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) You had better plan your time wisely today or you could certainly scatter your forces and accomplish very little. Invite some lonely friend to your home, the theater, etc. Spend a happy time together.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Sit down and plan how to make the new year far more successful and happy by right planning now. Outline your idea to higher-ups if you want the backing they can give. Express yourself well.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you take higher-ups into your confidence as to your ambitions, you will get the support that you need. Accept that invitation but do not make unwise remarks to some new contact. Keep your own counsel.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Take care you do not criticize others and particularly do not irk higher-ups in any way, or you get into much trouble. Find new gadgets to make your work easier, more efficient. Relax tonight.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You can do much better today if you are in a cooperative instead of an argumentative mood with others. Don't work some cute angle to gain a wish that others would not appreciate. Treat matters more kindly.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Spend some time coming to a better arrangement with co-workers and put aside personal desires now. Try not to labor so hard that you do not have energy left for other important matters also. Balance your life better.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Don't criticize an associate or come out with such a radical idea you get laughed at, but keep your feet on the ground. Instead of being blunt, be courteous and all goes well for you. Enjoy music in p.m.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you waste time, you will lose out by not going through with all those tasks awaiting your attention. Show that you have excellent talents. Kindness to mate pays off in big dividends. More happiness is yours, too.

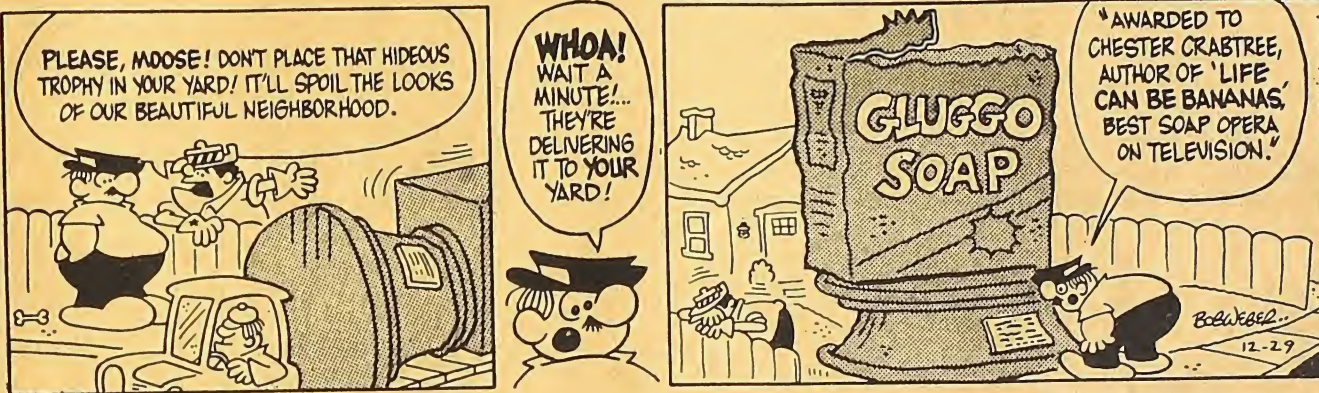

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) If you go out with persons whose ideas of recreation are similar to your own, you find this can be a most enjoyable day, p.m. You have to show real affection for mate if you are to gain the benefits you want. Think logically.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have to give more attention at home if you want to keep or have more harmony in that important realm of your existence. Work toward special aims. Get rid of whatever it is that makes for friction at home.

If your child is born today he or she will be one of those charming young people who early in life wants to jump from one thing to another. Be sure to teach him to have a goal and work toward it so the energies will not be scattered. Then the chart becomes a successful one, since there is really a brilliant mind here which only needs controlling. There is fine ability at whatever is of a sports nature, in fact, sports could become the life's profession.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you. Carroll Righter's Individual Forecast for your sign for January is now ready. For your copy send your birthdate and $1 to Carroll Righter Forecast, The Daily Eagle, Box 629, Hollywood, Calif. 90028.
